Walk for Life 2001

WOW!!!! Thanks to EVERYONE who participated in this year's Walk for Life! So far we've raised just over $20,000 - the best we've EVER done! We gave away more sweatshirts and jackets than all of our previous Walks - which means that YOU worked harder collecting pledges! Your support is deeply appreciated!

God Bless
America!

Larissa with Sveta - Now 4 years old, she was Larissa's first "save!"

Katya (17 yrs. old) with 8 day old son - another Silent Voices baby!

We are so grateful for those of you who support our international centers! We will open additional centers as the Lord increases our international support base!

Our Bridges to Motherhood program is still in URGENT need of volunteers! We've recently lost our Spanish speaking volunteer, so we're especially in need of someone who is fluent in Spanish. The meetings are the 2nd and 4th Wednesday evening of each month, from 6:00pm-9:00pm. "Bridges" is such an important part of our ministry - many of our moms are in living situations that provide little or no support - knowing there are women at Silent Voices who love them and care about the choices and decisions they are making has had a HUGE impact on their lives. If you're interested in becoming involved, call Linda for more information - she'd LOVE to share how YOU can help!

An Angel in Blue Jeans... God has blessed us with an angel - a short, sweet little lady who wears blue jeans and tennis shoes - and who walks in periodically with a donation. She never wants to be recognized - she doesn't want us to know her name - she just wants to support the Lord's work. The last time she came in she left us a roll of money - $1000 in cash!

Just Wanted to say THANKS!

At the end of the school year we wanted to say a special "Thanks" to our "Tuesday girls" (Sarah, Rosa and Kristin), by placing an ad in their High School paper (Hilltop High) with a message just for them. We were told that we couldn't place an ad "because of the sensitive nature of what we do." Has it become politically incorrect to say "thank you?!"
